

LONG BEACH POLICE DEPARTMENT

ADMINISTRATOR

Ruby Marin-Jordan

Administrator Ruby Marin-Jordan was appointed as the Administrator of the Police Department's Professional Standards Division in the Executive Bureau in 2019. In 2020, the scope of her duties expanded to include the mission and directives under the Office of Constitutional Policing.

Administrator Marin-Jordan is an attorney admitted into the New York State bar in 1993 and has been involved in the Criminal Justice System for 28 years. Administrator Marin-Jordan has held positions in almost every aspect of the criminal justice system, as a public defender, law clerk to New York Supreme Court Justices sitting in the Criminal term, as special counsel to the Deputy Commissioner of Legal Matters in the New York City Police Department (NYPD), the first Risk Management Director in the NYPD's Risk Management Division, as an adjunct professor in the Criminal Justice program in the Borough of Manhattan Community College and lastly as a Deputy General Counsel, Risk Manager in the New York City Department of Correction. Under her leadership, claims and lawsuits against the NYPD declined significantly. She managed, streamlined, and revised the Early Warning System (Performance Monitoring Program) at the NYPD, and created the Department of Correction's first Early Warning System.

Administrator Marin-Jordan holds a Juris Doctor degree from Hofstra University, School of Law, and a Bachelor of Science in Medical Technology Degree from St. John's University. She is a member of the New York, New Jersey, and United States Supreme Court Bar.

